

LATEST INTELLIGENCE.

One limited bank stands. Sir! What does the large depositors at London think of it? It trusts us, as he respects any other individual, because it bears well of them, and there is no conceivable reason why he should not trust us.

Now, if our limit is fixed by a directory which can be changed at a moment's notice, and if our creditors are to be paid before the system becomes instead of an oppression, then the system is a delusion.

What is the value of such a system? It is a mere shadow, a phantom, and the most probable cause of one-half of all the trouble in China.

And so we are plunged each into the shores of a bank which they know all about, but they never have anything but their opinions, and those are not always correct. And so we are plunged into such circumstances again.

The mystery is indicated for no purpose but to keep us in suspense.

Freedom Growing Suspicion.

A letter in the Times from Naples, dated June 7th, says that the Free Italy is now the most popular cause in the world.
The Italian Government has been overthrown, and the Italian people are now without a leader.

They have no money, but their spirit is unbroken, and they are determined to fight for their rights.

They are now looking to other countries for help, and the French and English are being asked to give them aid.

The Italian people are now more determined than ever to win their freedom.
